NHS trust to face charges over care home stabbing

EXCLUSIVE

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

CHARGES are being brought against an NHS trust and care home owner in relation to the murder and attempted murder of two carers by a mental health patient.

Kathleen Bainbridge died after being stabbed at Abacus Nursing Home in Princes Street, Dunstable, in August 2007, while colleague Barbara Hill was also attacked during the same incident but survived.

Following a trial at Luton Crown Court in April 2009, a jury found Stephen Flatt – who was a resident at the home at the time – to be responsible for killing 58-year-old Ms Bainbridge and for trying to murder Ms Hill.

Flatt, then 55, had been deemed unfit to enter a plea and was detained indefinitely under the Criminal Procedures Insanity Act 1964.

Now Hertfordshire NHS Foundation Trust, which placed Flatt in care at the nursing home, is being prosecuted as an employer by watchdog Health & Safety Executive (HSE) for allegedly contravening health and safety regulations in that it failed to ensure the safety of Ms Bainbridge, who lived in North Drift Way, Luton, and Ms Hill.

KILLER: Stephen Flatt

DIED: Kathleen Bainbridge

SURVIVED: Barbara Hill

Central Bedfordshire Council is also prosecuting the owner of the care home, Chelvanayagam Menna, of Periwinkle Lane, Dunstable, in relation to three counts of contravening health and safety regulations in that he failed to ensure the safety of Ms Bainbridge and Ms Hill.

Central Beds Cllr Ian Dalgarno said: "We have investigated the arrangements in place at Abacus House and their adequacy with regard to the health and safety of other residents and staff at the time of the incident. Legal proceedings are at their earliest stage."

In a statement HSE said: "There was a joint investigation into this incident between HSE, Bedfordshire Police and Central Beds."

"HSE's investigation focussed on the actions of the Trust in placing the assailant at Abacus House. Final decisions on legal action have not yet been made."

A Herts NHS Trust spokesman said: "We are not able to comment on any matters due to the case being sub judice."

Abacus Nursing Home is no longer operational.

Governor and former parish councillor pleads guilty to theft from school

A FUNDRAISER is facing jail after she stole hundreds of pounds from the primary school where she was a governor.

Former parish councillor Tracey Burgess, 43, took £660 from Slip End Lower School when she was covering as office manager there between July and November last year.

When the manager returned from sick leave, it was discovered that cash – which had been paid by parents for school trips, uniforms and other activities for the children – had gone missing and had not been banked.

Burgess, of Ross Way, Slip End, was sacked following an investigation by Central Bedfordshire Council and on Wednesday pleaded guilty to theft at Luton Magistrates' Court.

She had helped set up Slip End Youth Centre in 2007 and became a councillor for Slip End Parish Council. She was also part of Friends of Slip End Lower School, which raises funds for the school.

Burgess will be sentenced on November 11, but District Judge Carolyn Mellanby told her: "You could face a custodial sentence as you were in a position of trust."

In Central Beds' response to questions asked by Luton on Sunday as to when Burgess was fired, spokesman David Petrie said: "The information you are looking for is held by the school."

"Unfortunately the school is closed for half term this week so I have been unable to get a response."

Teen changes story on how her unborn baby was killed

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A TEENAGER whose baby died when she was seven months pregnant told police her boyfriend punched her in the stomach to hurt the unborn child.

Samantha Chase, then 17, said she was 'angry' with Brian Woodbridge, 19, after the couple had a row, and told police he punched her outside The Mall Luton before stealing her bag and snatching a pound from her hand, Snarebrook Crown Court heard.

But Miss Chase, who at the time lived at the family home of Mr Woodbridge at Heswall Court in Bailey Street, Luton, has since changed her story and claimed she was never assaulted by him.

The jury heard she may have hurt herself tripping over a curb or even punched herself in the stomach on the morning of November 22, 2010. A passer-by called police and paramedics at 8.45am when he saw Miss Chase in distress near The Mall shouting 'leave me, leave me,' it was said.

She was taken to Luton & Dunstable Hospital when ambulance workers noticed a red mark on the lower right side of her belly.

Her condition went quickly downhill and her baby was declared dead at about 7pm.

A post-mortem revealed the little boy, who was named Taylor, had died from oxygen deprivation after Miss Chase suffered a tear to the lining of her womb.

Mr Woodbridge, who was arrested at 10.45am that morning, has denied punching his partner.

Paul Spreadborough, defending, said Miss Chase had thought her 'lies' would get her boyfriend 'in a bit of trouble and he'd spend a few days in the cells'.

He said: 'You also told us that you'd punched yourself and you felt terrible and didn't want anyone to know.'

'You told lies on these occasions to hurt Brian and because you didn't want to get in trouble yourself.'

'Sometimes it was because you thought it was the best way to get yourself out of a situation you'd got yourself into.'

Giving evidence, Miss Chase claimed to have thrown a handful of money at Mr Woodbridge and lied when she said he stole it from her.

Allegations he shouted 'you don't care about me, you only care about the baby' were also made up, she said.

But Jan Hayne, prosecuting, said the teenager had told the truth during her first interview with police.

She said: 'The prosecution case is that the placental abruption occurred as a result of Mr Woodbridge hitting Miss Chase.'

At the time of the alleged incident, the couple had been together just under four months and Miss Chase had been living at Woodbridge's family home.

She had fallen pregnant by a previous partner but the defendant had agreed to stay with her.

Mr Woodbridge denied child destruction and alternative charges of causing grievous bodily harm with intent and wounding.

He also denied robbing Miss Chase. The trial continues.

Security firm used unlicensed guard

THE DIRECTOR and operations manager of a security firm have been ordered to pay more than £8,400 for using an unlicensed guard and then lying about it.

Ahmad Jaber, 46, was the director of AJ Security Consultancy Limited, based in Old Bedford Road, Luton, and Charles White was its operations manager.

The firm supplied guards to sites in the Luton area and in London.

In December 2010, a man was detected working without an Security Industry Authority (SIA) licence at a demolition site in Kensington. When questioned by the SIA, he claimed he was an unpaid volunteer.

The SIA launched a formal investigation and found he had completed 684 hours of paid work as a security guard for AJ Security Consultancy without a licence.

When Jaber and White, 53, were contacted by the SIA, they provided no information about the site and gave false statements to try to cover up the true nature of the work being carried out. At Luton Magistrates' Court on Monday, Jaber, of Westlecole Gardens, Luton, pleaded guilty to one offence of supplying an unlicensed security guard, two counts of failing to provide information and two counts of providing false information to the SIA.

He was fined £2,920 for the five offences and was ordered to pay SIA costs of £2,000 and a £15 victim surcharge.

Jaber and White's SIA licences have both been suspended, and are in the process of being revoked so that they will not be able to work in the security industry.

Teachers protest over pensions

TEACHERS travelled to Westminster to urge their MPs to reverse proposed changes to their pension scheme.

National Union of Teachers Luton secretary Dave Mingay joined 3,000 others outside Parliament on Wednesday to lobby for the scrapping of reforms which include raising the state pension age from 65 to 66.

Members from seven different unions presented schools minister Nick Gibb with a petition signed by more than 155,000 colleagues.

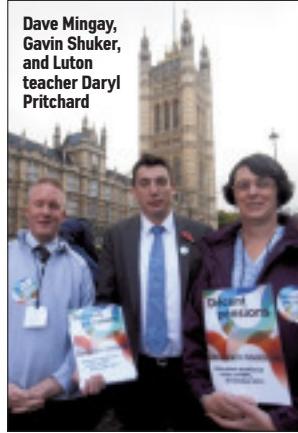

Mingay said: 'It is pleasing that both Luton MPs are supportive of teachers and value their contribution to society.'

'This lobby is the Government's last chance to listen to teachers before widespread strike action on November 30.'

'The Government is asking teachers to pay more, work longer and get less by saying their pensions are unaffordable.'

Luton South Labour MP Gavin Shuker said: 'The Government is pursuing a race to the bottom on

Dave Mingay,
Gavin Shuker,
and Luton
teacher Daryl
Pritchard

pensions. The biggest myth of all is that teachers' pensions are gold plated and I will continue to support teachers in parliament and at home in Luton.'

Balotting at some unions on possible strike action is under way.

Judge suspends jail sentence for knifeman

A MAN who wielded a six-inch knife when confronting youths has been spared jail.

Gabor Kovacs, 50, was outside a row of shops in Hockwell Ring, Luton, when he noticed some teenagers spitting at people and on the floor, Luton Magistrates' Court heard on Wednesday.

He told them to stop but an argument broke out, and one of them said he was going to get his dad to 'sort him out'.

Kovacs went to his home in Acworth Crescent and picked up a knife before returning to speak to the father in question, who told him his son was 'mentally disabled'.

Kovacs then threw the blade to the ground and went to leave, prosecutor Joy Gir said.

But as he did so, the group began to attack him and he was punched and kicked on the ground.

When police turned up he told them where the knife was.

Mrs Gir said: "When he was being transferred to the police station he told police, 'I have to protect myself'."

Kovacs pleaded guilty to possession of a bladed article in a public place. District Judge Carolyn Mellanby said: "Some people might say I should send you to prison immediately for 20 weeks but I think that would not be reasonable."

Suspending a 20-week jail sentence for 12 months, District Judge Mellanby said she believed Kovacs regretted the incident, did not use the knife and it was down to his admissions of what happened that it came to court.

He was also ordered to pay £85 costs and ordered for the knife to be destroyed.

Date set for former MP's expenses trial

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lsmmedia.com

MARGARET MORAN will stand trial next year over allegations she fiddled her expenses to the tune of around £80,000.

The 56-year-old, who represented Luton South for 13 years until 2010, is alleged to have made several dubious claims including £22,500 to treat dry rot at a home in Southampton, more than 100 miles from her constituency.

The ex-Labour Party member is also said to have repeatedly 'flipped' her designated second home, making claims for properties in London, Luton and Southampton over a four-year period.

Ms Moran, who was barred from standing for Labour and stood down at last year's General Election, is said to have claimed £4,756 for replacement kitchen units and £14,805 for emergency heating and conservatory repairs as well.

In total, she faces 15 charges of false accounting and six of using a false instrument, which relate to her allegedly submitting forged invoices, dating from between November 2004 and August 2008.

Ms Moran did not appear before Mr Justice Cooke at Southwark Crown Court at her hearing on Friday, but in her absence the judge set a provisional trial date for April 18, 2012.

Ex-MP Margaret Moran outside the City of Westminster Magistrates' Court last month

When Ms Moran appeared before City of Westminster Magistrates' Court last month, she wept in the dock throughout the brief hearing, speaking only to confirm her name. Ms Moran, of Ivy Road, St Denys, Southampton, is the fifth Labour MP to face prosecution over the expenses scandal and Director of Public Prosecutions Kier Starmer has said she will be the last to stand trial.

Nightclub owner forced into administration by banks

JOBs at a nightclub are at risk after the company that owns it went into administration.

Luminar Leisure, which looks after Liquid in Gordon Street, Luton, has an uncertain future following its collapse on Friday.

Milton Keynes-based Luminar, which also has an office in King Street, Luton, recently put itself up for sale in an attempt to secure its future but only received offers for part of the business and said these were not sufficient to generate returns for shareholders. On Thursday it announced its banks – Lloyds, Barclays and Royal Bank of Scotland – had refused to extend loan facilities, leaving directors with 'no option' but to call in administrators.

LUTON UNIVERSITY

It's the last chance to nominate your hero for this year's Luton's Best Awards

THERE is just one week left for you to honour the best in our community for 2011.

So if you know an unsung hero in our community and haven't entered them for one of the Luton's Best Awards yet, don't miss the opportunity to say thank you in a big way.

The Luton Forum in partnership with Luton Borough Council is once again hosting these prestigious awards to recognise and honour outstanding individuals and organisations who give their time and work hard, sometimes against the odds, to make our town such a great place to live, learn, work and have fun.

Maybe it's a friend, a colleague or even you.

Councillor Hazel Simmons, chairman of Luton Forum, said: "The Luton's Best Awards will again be a glittering occasion and a wonderful way in which to say thank you to so many people, of all ages, who make a truly valuable contribution to Luton being such a great town.

"I am looking forward to welcoming all of the nominees for 2011 which I know will once again reflect the high quality of individuals, organisations and community groups that we are fortunate to have in our town.

"Once again we are indebted to the many local businesses and organisations who are sponsoring the event enabling the Luton's Best Awards to be non-profit making and at no cost to the public purse." There are awards for individuals and groups, for people working in the public sector and for companies who play an important part in their community – there is just one week left for you to tell us about them.

The 16 categories for this year's awards are:

- Leisure and Culture
- Outstanding Teacher
- Lutonian of the year
- Young Achiever
- Adult Achiever
- Service with a Smile
- Community Company of the Year
- Child of Courage
- Best Fundraiser & Volunteer
- Community Project of the Year
- Keeping Luton Safe
- Environmental Achievement
- Innovator of the Year
- Community Business person of the Year
- Luton in Harmony
- Lifetime Achievement

All nominees are entered into a draw to win two tickets to the prestigious awards event at Luton Hoo on December 8.

Nominations for all 16 categories are open until Monday, November 7.

For full details of the awards, the criteria and how to enter visit www.luton.gov.uk/lutonsbestawards or contact Sinead McNamara on 01582 546265 or email sinead.mcnamara@luton.gov.uk

Campaigners to march again just like in 1936

A TRADE union anti-cuts public meeting is being held in conjunction with the anniversary of a protest march. It will be 75 years since the Jarrow Marchers hit the streets for London and tomorrow a group will pass through Luton as part of their recreation of the 330-mile 1936 procession to highlight record levels of youth unemployment. Luton Trade Union Council members will join them at Toddington Road as they walk to the centre of the town, arriving at 4.30pm in St George's Square.

At 7pm the trade union will hold an anti-cuts gathering at Judith Blake Lecture Theatre at the University of Bedfordshire's Park Square campus. Speakers will include Peter Kavanagh, of Unite and the Jarrow Marchers.

Biker banned after ride clocks 130mph

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MOTORCYCLIST caught doing 130mph – 60mph over the legal speed limit – has been banned from driving for 42 days.

Robert Porter, of Sundon Park Road, Luton, was spotted by police riding his black Aprilia northbound on the dual carriage-way of the A6 near Barton-le-Clay.

The 32-year-old, who works as a lorry driver, was going so fast the handheld laser device used to detect his speed was unable to pick up his registration number.

Porter, who pleaded guilty to the speeding offence at Luton

Magistrates' Court on Monday, immediately admitted to police officers that it was him when they followed him home and knocked on his door.

Mr Jackson, defending, said: "The sensation of speed is not what you expect from a normal car or bike on a race bike."

"What I can tell you is that as a result of this he has disposed of the motorcycle that he was riding."

Magistrates were told their guidelines for sentencing only go up to offences of 110mph.

As well as his six week driving ban, Porter was fined £200 and ordered to pay costs of £75 and a £15 victim surcharge. He was also banned from driving for six weeks.

Mary Amos-Cole, of Kingsmead, Edlesborough, lost her motorcyclist son Richard in 2004 when he was killed in a crash in Heath and Reach.

She said: "I am disappointed that someone would do this and give bikers a bad name."

"He could have killed someone, killed himself."

"Was it worth it?"

"It risks his job, his financial status, risking killing someone, going to court and getting bad publicity for bikers."

"Is it worth it? I think not."

Coroner opens inquest into worker's ladder death fall

AN inquest has been opened into the death of a contractor who fell from a ladder.

Tony Bolt, 60, was carrying out refurbishment work to the exterior of Yorkshire Bank in George Street, Luton, on October 19 when he suffered serious injuries to his neck in the fall.

After a post-mortem the coroner said the cause of death was 'fall with traumatic injury to neck'. A date for the inquest has yet to be set.

The Health and Safety Executive is investigating. Police said there are no suspicious circumstances.

Court loggers bow out in digital switch

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A COURT has waved goodbye to its loggers after they were made redundant – with their roles being taken over by machines.

Ten men and women have tape recorded thousands of cases since Luton Crown Court, in Market Hill, opened 20 years ago.

But new digital equipment has been installed in each of the six court rooms to do their jobs instead.

Loggers played an important role in court, recording hearings and making transcripts available. Cases couldn't go ahead without a logger being present.

It was their job to listen to and record tales of murder, greed, cunning and downright wickedness. But their time is now at an end.

Logger Ann Purdy said: "It's very sad and it marks the end of an era.

LOGGING OFF: Six of the ten loggers who have been made redundant. From left, Steve Wells, David Burgess, Ann Purdy, Margaret Malone, Wayne Frogatt and Colin Siddons

All of us have enjoyed working here."

Colleague Margaret Malone said: "It's been so interesting, at times even shocking.

"We are all sad to be leaving and we will miss the court staff enormously."

Barrister Will Noble said: "It is a shame. They have become part of the fabric of court."

Judge Jeffrey Burke added: "They will be missed. It's always a shame to see people replaced by machines. We all feel very sad they are going."

Give us a vote on EU

SIR - I am furious at the deceit of our main political parties.

At the last General Election they all pledged to allow us a referendum on the EU constitution.

They then allowed the constitution to be tagged on with even more powers delegated to the EU, called it a treaty and then voted to deny us the vote they promised.

On Monday afternoon I heard William Hague saying the coalition parties did not promise a referendum in their manifesto over EU membership.

In fact Nick Clegg led his MPs out of Parliament rather than vote to support his pledge.

Strictly speaking they did not, however they did pledge one on the constitution. So stop ducking and weaving, Mr Hague. Where is our vote?

It is our country as much as yours, and it's about time all the main parties stopped insulting us and put the case for membership to us to vote yes or no.

Cllr Steve Radford
President of The Liberal Party

We should all love Luton

SIR - I consider myself lucky to be living in Luton where there are so many well kept parks and natural areas.

I think the council does a grand job clearing up all the mess left in the parks almost daily – cans, bottles, carrier bags, crisp packets, take-away containers and the suchlike.

These parks and natural areas can be enjoyed for free, ideal when money is tight.

What a shame that some do not appreciate their beauty and benefit and leave so much litter.

Windsor Hills is one place I visit regularly.

How sad to see doors, trolleys, gas bottles and a whole host of debris left as well as the usual litter.

I do not agree with litter being dropped anywhere by anyone but found it quite racist for there to be such an outcry about the mess left by the travellers at Stockwood Park while quite a lot of our settled community is not any better.

Let's put our own house in order first.

The travellers find themselves in a difficult position as although they are able and willing to buy land, no one wants to give them planning permission and while this continues they will be forced into stopping on places where we don't want them.

At least the eviction of Dale Farm has been the first time the settled community has supported the travellers.

Let's hope this is the beginning of us accepting the travelling community in the same way we have embraced the other nationalities now settled in Luton.

Turn2us for some help

SIR - As we head into the winter months, sharply rising fuel bills play on many minds and the prospect of an additional expense seems almost too much to bear at a time of such immense financial pressure.

And it is so often the vulnerable who find themselves facing the

Questioning councillor's Bushwood stance

SIR - I am now coming to the conclusion that Central Bedfordshire executive councillor Richard Stay has a troubling infatuation and unhealthy obsession with the Bushwood development proposal.

Last week's letter was not what I would have expected from someone in his position and I would like to explain why.

The main point to make is that he is 100 per cent wrong in his statement that the developers have not been in touch with Central Beds.

The Friends of Bushwood committee is aware of communications last month – Cllr Stay is obviously not as well informed as he thinks and it is good to know that officers are getting on with their job without him.

The Localism Bill and the National Planning Policy Framework are still being debated in Parliament and have not yet become policy.

Understandably developers up and down the country will be reluctant to submit any planning applications until there is some firm legislation to work to.

Under these circumstances I do not foresee a planning application from the developers behind the A5-M1 Link Road, nor Bushwood, nor many other proposals across the country.

This is regrettable because the Chancellor of the Exchequer, George Osborne, has gone on record to state that the construction industry is a priority to our economic growth.

However, unless local executive decision makers like Cllr Stay start to assess the options based upon the planning credentials without being politically motivated, then towns like Luton and Dunstable will continue to suffer.

I first became aware of the most extreme conditions at this time of year, including the nation's six million carers.

More than nine in ten carers surveyed recently by Turn2us have concerns about how they are going to manage to pay growing fuel bills through the coldest months.

The research also reveals the disturbing fact that more than half of carers are not claiming carers' allowance, and one in five are not claiming any benefits at all.

This is the case despite the fact that carers offer an unpaid contribution of £119 billion every year to the UK's economy.

In these increasingly difficult times, it is more important than Bushwood proposals at a Federation of Small Businesses AGM evening at Dunstable Downs Golf Club in 2009.

Two of the directors from Bushwood attended the evening and presented their vision to all guests and with a speed networking agenda rotated among the tables answering all questions put to them.

Dunstable is proud of its own identity and knows how important the Grove Theatre, Central Bedfordshire College, Dunstable Downs, Queen Eleanor's Cross and the Priory Church are to its residents.

As a publican and a local businessman, what I liked most about the presentation was that the developers were focused on bringing new business and new custom into Dunstable and their vision was to replicate the successful market towns of Leighton Buzzard, Ampthill and Hitchin.

Although the A5-M1 Link Road has positives, the negative is that it will take people away from the town.

This particular road will only make it easier for people to get to Milton Keynes more quickly than they already can.

ever to ensure that everyone, especially those who need help the most, are aware of their potential entitlement to welfare benefits.

I would urge all carers to access the benefits checker at www.turn2us.org.uk and discover what they might be entitled to, how much and where to claim.

Spread the message and let's get those who most need financial support claiming what they may be entitled to.

Meanwhile, we read with serious concern the bleak news that the country is at risk of falling back into recession.

As turmoil on the financial markets dampens European growth prospects and the Bank of

This could be the final nail in the coffin for all small local businesses.

What Dunstable has always needed is a north-south bypass.

In regards to Bushwood I left the evening optimistic, impressed and soon became a fully-fledged 'Friend of Bushwood'.

Since then I have watched with interest the progress of the West of Luton development and as it has become more prominent so have Cllr Stay's negative statements.

As a previous deputy leader and now executive member for external affairs, he has a duty to leave behind his NIMBY stance and look at what is best for Central Beds residents.

In his executive position, it is not acceptable to say no to a privately funded development that is in his backyard and yes to one to the north of Luton that is dependent on half a billion pounds of public funding just for the road.

It is not acceptable for him to dismiss this opportunity for a possible 6,000 long-term jobs and probably double that in short term construction jobs at Bushwood, when the alternatives are more logistic led and much fewer in number.

It is not acceptable to dismiss what could be the only credible regeneration and economic growth option for Dunstable and support alternatives that would drive the nail in the coffin of local small businesses.

Cllr Stay has this responsibility to the wider community and if he fails to accept his duties and continues to be an obsessed, infatuated NIMBY, then he seriously has to reconsider his position as an executive member at Central Beds and as a Conservative.

Publican and Federation of Small Businesses member

We know that people are often reluctant to turn to charities or claim benefits – even when times are tough – but we hope people are able to see past the perceived stigma and access the help available.

It isn't just 'vulnerable' households who are being hit hard by the current economic climate, but families who never, ever expected to face financial difficulty are struggling to make ends meet too.

Alison Taylor
Director of Turn2us

Concentrate on Syria

SIR - In a brave and important move that has been as yet barely acknowledged in the Press in this country, the Libyan Transitional National Council a few days ago shut the Syrian embassy in Tripoli, and recognised the Syrian National Council (which has recently unified virtually all the non-violent anti-Assad Syrian Opposition behind its banner) as the government-in-waiting of Syria.

This is an exciting development, an intelligent move which ought to be copied by Britain.

For one of the things that the Syrian protesters now most want (they mostly don't want foreign military intervention) is precisely this – serious diplomatic sanctions against Syria, to de-legitimise the Assad regime in the eyes of the world.

Let's close the Syrian embassy in Britain (unless it is prepared to declare 'UDI' from its capital, as some Libyan embassies did during the uprising there), and recognise the SNC as the only legitimate government of Syria.

Assad doesn't govern Syria any more. He merely tries (and mostly, due to the extraordinary bravery of the bulk of the people, fails) to terrorise it.

Imposing such diplomatic sanctions on Syria is the least that this country can do, to back up the heroic Syrian democracy protesters.

It may be time to switch

SIR - The clocks went back last night, heralding the start of another cold winter, and with a recent Which? survey showing that energy prices are the number one financial concern for consumers, it's more important than ever to ensure that your household is on the most cost-effective energy tariff for its needs.

To coincide with National Energy Saving week last week, Which? encouraged people to check that they are on the most suitable tariff.

We found that the average energy bill in the East of England is £1,282.

However, it only takes ten minutes to check if you're on the best tariff.

With the average annual saving by dual fuel customers who switched with Which? Switch! (visit www.which.co.uk/switch or call 01992 822867) last year standing at £237, it may be the most fruitful ten minutes you spend online this winter.

Unfortunately, there's nothing we can do about the weather, but you could save yourself hundreds of pounds a year by switching energy supplier.

Tom McLennan
Head of switching, Which?

Big saving to be made in streamlining government

THIS government is keen on cutting expenditure, especially where they see waste. Luckily I can help them. There is a large area of waste within the Government itself. It is called the Government. There are currently more than 100 MPs who are part of David Cameron's Government, which makes up almost one third of the Conservative and Lib Dem MPs. Do we need them all? Certainly not, in my opinion.

First we could get rid of the Energy Secretary and his team. Energy prices keep rising and Chris Huhne admits he can do nothing about it. It is all our fault for not shopping around.

I did shop around once and it was a nightmare. But if Mr Huhne cannot do anything constructive, other than say how dreadful it is, we could get rid of the post and his three ministers, saving a few hundred thousand pounds. Mr Huhne won't be too discomfited, as he made a fortune in the city before entering politics.

Then there's Work and Pensions. As very soon there will no work and no pensions, surely it is time to make Iain Duncan Smith redundant. He has five MPs in his department, which should again provide a considerable saving. Next we have the whips. For those that do not know, these are the MPs who force other MPs in their own party to vote according to party policy. There are 27 of them in the Government, 17 in the Commons and ten in the Lords which is more than most towns have police officers on a Saturday night. Is it so hard to get their own MPs to vote for their own policies? And it seems that, after the vote on an EU referendum, they are not very effective anyway.

Incidentally, in the Lords they are not called Whips but Lords or Baronesses in Waiting. This is probably because they do not have to force them to vote so much as get them out of the lavatories in time for the vote.

Then we have the Conservative chairman, Baroness Warsi. I have nothing against her or her job but should the party chairman be in the Government? It smacks of old-fashioned communism.

Andrew Mitchell is the

'... very soon there will no work and no pensions, surely it is time to make Iain Duncan Smith redundant. He has five MPs in his department, which should again provide a considerable saving

Secretary of State for International Development and I cannot think for the life of me why we need such a role. Make a list of who deserves aid and send it to the Bank of England. How long can that take? Incidentally one of his two ministers is Alan Duncan, who said last year that MPs would be forced to live on rations after the expenses scandal. Someone who obviously understands the meaning of poverty.

Finally there is the Cabinet Office. It must be a big office because it has a minister, Francis Maude (son of Angus Maude) and three assistants, Nick Hurd (son of Douglas Hurd), Mark Harper and Oliver Letwin. In fact it might be big but poor Oliver still has to do his paperwork in the nearby park. Luckily the park has plenty of bins for him to file the papers once read.

And, of course, for every minister, there is a shadow minister, so the saving would be quite handy. If we looked at the departments themselves, it could be very handy indeed.

Should this very sound advice be acted on, I would like a percentage of the savings for my effort. Call it a lobby fee.

Phantoms, ghouls,

LUTON'S eerie past stems from its 'nimble-fingered citizens' of the 17th century, according to the Haunted Places of Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire.

Travellers passing through on their way to and from London often stopped in the town's inns and taverns and, all too often they left with less money than they had when they arrived.

DID you know there used to be a gallows by the A6 in north Luton? Or maybe you were unaware that two ghosts frequent a church in Kensworth? With it being Halloween tomorrow, LUSTRACCIA studied Rupert Matthews' Haunted Places of Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire to find out where in the south of the county you can find black dog apparitions and headless phantoms . . .

days before being bound in chains and hoisted on to the gibbet, to ensure the bodies would swing in the wind for months before they rotted to serve as a deterrent.

After a fierce storm one night, a bolt of lightning hit the gibbet and the shape of a huge black dog emerged, prancing around flames for hours until the fire died down.

The apparition then howled with a terrifying piercing voice, leapt on to the ashes and vanished. From then onwards, travellers would find themselves confronted by the most enormous black hound, which was said to have glowing red eyes and a sinister growl.

It was said that wise travellers turned back, while unwise ones were not heard of again.

IN Kensworth, from the rear of the churchyard of St Mary the Virgin, in Church End, a stile gives access to a grassy field frequented by two ghosts.

but only one of them gets there. The one that remains in the field is an old woman who wears a most peculiar hat, which is said to be black with a low crown surrounded by a brim that has four corners, which was unusual for the time.

This ghost ‘witch’ walks down the path from the woods, but when she reaches the stile into the churchyard she stops abruptly and waves a fist at the church in anger from being forbidden from entering holy precincts.

The second phantom, a young milkmaid, is headless – her neck has been sliced clean through.

She does make her way into the churchyard and, according to the book, 'this would appear to be one of those instances where a most startling ghost has no real story to explain it.'

Yet she persistently walks her route down from the hills and into the churchyard. The mystery is why?

Haunted Places of Bedfordshire and Buckinghamshire is divided into four sections, covering the north and the south parts of both counties, with each one yielding up its fair share of ghosts, phantoms, spectres and poltergeists.

Other locations in south Bedfordshire which are 'haunted' include The Cork and Bull Pub in Cumberland Street, Luton, where the Grey Lady of Luton walks back and forth.

There is also a common – located behind a clock tower war memorial in the village of Studham, near Dunstable Downs – that is haunted.

St Mary's Church
in Kensworth

A phantom of a short, bearded man dressed in a suit regularly approaches walkers on the common to ask them questions.

21 Gun-toting robbers hold up family in car

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

ARMED robbers forced a car carrying a couple and their six-year-old to stop before threatening them with guns.

The family, from Dunstable, were driving along Harefield Road, Luton, when a man stepped out onto the road making them stop.

Two other men then got in to the back seat of the car and threatened the 30-year old-driver and his wife with what appeared to be hand guns before hitting them both over the head.

They then took an Apple iPad together with a brown wallet containing personal documentation and cash before leaving. Detective Constable Surfraz Hussain, investigating, is keen to trace anyone who saw the robbery or noticed the victim's blue Toyota Prius in the street.

He said: "The couple had their six-year-old in the back of the vehicle at the time of this incident and they were all completely traumatised by what happened."

"Although gun crime is low in our county it is a concern that these people chose to put this family, including a small child, in such a dangerous and frightening position."

"I would appeal to anyone who can help identify those responsible for this crime or anyone who saw the car stop in Harefield Road to come forward and help with this investigation."

The first robber is described as being of Asian appearance, aged about 20, 5ft 5ins tall with a medium build. He wore a black hooded top.

The second is described as white, aged about 25, 6ft tall with a medium build, white blonde spiky hair and blonde eyebrows. He wore a black hooded top.

The third is described as 6ft tall and wearing a large black coat and a black turtle neck top.

If you have information on the incident, which happened shortly before 9pm on Monday, contact DC Hussain, in confidence, on 01582 473352, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

The chance to have your say on health care issues

A NUMBER of events are being held to find out what people think the priorities should be for health and social care services.

Carers, care providers, community groups and voluntary sector organisations are being asked about, among other things, quality of and shaping care services and personalisation of care.

The Central Bedfordshire

Caring for our Future events are being held on:

■ November 9, 10am-1.30pm at Watling House, Central Bedfordshire Council, Watling House, High Street North, Dunstable

■ November 11, 10am-1.30pm at Millbrook Village Hall, Sandhill Close, Millbrook

To book your place contact Veronica Webster on 0300 300 8000 or email partnershipteam@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk

Clr Carole Hegley said: "We are committed to working with local people as experts in what are the priorities for health and social care services in the future."

"These events are a great opportunity for local people to have their voice heard at a national level."

In debt worker stole from firm

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WOMAN stole more than £2,500 from the loan company she worked for to combat her mounting debts.

Teresa Peart, 44, was working for Shopacheck in Upper George Street, Luton, when she took the money intended for customers, Luton Magistrates' Court heard.

The single mother-of-two, of Hockwell Ring, was confronted by employers and admitted to police that she had taken a total of £2,530 from the firm between May 2010 until April this year. Shopacheck provides a loan service to customers who pay back in weekly instalments. Peart was an agent for the company and her role was to obtain money from customers and also to deliver money to them.

On occasions she had failed to deliver cash to customers.

Prosecutor Joy Gir said: "When arrested she was interviewed and she did make admissions for taking the money as she was suffering from severe financial difficulties."

She said that Peart had taken money to pay for her rent and intended to pay it back but was unable to do so.

In her defence, Sandra Hill said: "This wasn't a case of someone stealing out of greed to fund a lavish lifestyle. She was about to be evicted from her home and had very little support from her family and friends.

"The situation escalated until ultimately she was confronted by her employers and was shortly thereafter arrested.

"She only last week was moved to live in a hotel room having been evicted and has been put into temporary housing."

On Monday, Peart pleaded guilty to theft by employee and magistrates requested a pre-sentence report to be undertaken before she is sentenced on November 11.

Teenager pleads guilty to taking his mother's car

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A TEENAGER stole his mum's car keys as she slept and then took the motor out for a joyride.

Shurmarkie Shields, of Wentworth Avenue, Luton, sneaked into his mother's room to take the keys to her Toyota Yaris before handing them to a friend who drove it on the night of September 24.

Police spotted the car along Marsh Road with no lights on, before it sped off.

At Luton Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, prosecutor Joy Gir said officers were following the Yaris at 40mph in a 30mph zone, before it came to a stop in the Hockwell Ring area.

Shields, 18, ran off but was arrested. He pleaded guilty to taking a motor vehicle without the owner's consent.

Gemma Barnes, defending, said: "He took his mother's keys and allowed his friend to drive the vehicle. He ran away because the situation had escalated due to his friend's poor driving."

"He panicked and ran away. It was a spur of the moment thing and there was no planning but he does regret his decision."

Ms Barnes said his mother, who was present at court, was 'disappointed and upset' and has warned him of the possible impact his crime could have had.

District Judge Carolyn Mellanby said: "You were 18 in March yet you are still behaving like an irresponsible kid. I am sure your mum has punished you as much as I can and I hope she has.

"You breached her trust taking her car like that.

"I am not going to fine you as I am sure your mum will pay for it which seems a bit ridiculous. Buy back the trust from your mum and the court and stay out of trouble."

She banned him from driving for six months and ordered him to pay £85 costs.

Shields was also given a conditional discharge for 12 months.

The friend who was caught driving the car was given a youth referral order at an earlier hearing. He cannot be named for legal reasons.

Thumbs-up for innovative hub

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutonandsunday.co.uk

A GOVERNMENT minister has launched a new community and enterprise hub in Houghton Regis.

Mark Prisk MP, Minister for Business & Enterprise, officially launched the Sandringham Drive development at the official opening hosted by Aldwyck Housing Group and Hill Partnerships Ltd.

The Homes and Community Agency recognised the design of the Sandringham Drive development as 'innovative' and suggested that this was 'an exemplar project' providing homes where families would really want to live.

In his opening address Mr Prisk said: "I was excited to be asked to attend the event as it is not just a construction project but also a small business project."

"This scheme represents an important change of thinking by bringing together housing and opportunity.

"It is a testimony to the ambition and vision of those that are here today and the local community."

Greg Lomax, chairman of Aldwyck, said: "I am delighted Mark Prisk MP could be here to celebrate the launch of 'The Hub' which will prove a valuable resource to the community and provide cost effective services for small start-up businesses and those wishing to expand."

Sandringham Drive is a community of 179 mixed tenure new homes, providing accommodation for social rent, supported housing, intermediate rent and shared ownership.

There are also an extra 52 homes for private sale by Hill Residential.

At the centre of it is a purpose built Community and Enterprise Hub that has been designed to support social enterprises, business and residents.

As a key feature of the scheme the hub has already played a vital role in encouraging residents to participate in community activities and has aided community engagement.

Aldwyck worked closely with both Central Bedfordshire and Luton Borough Council to ensure that the needs of the community were met.

The supported properties will primarily be aimed at residents with learning disabilities.

Andy Hill, chief executive of Hill Group, said: "The philosophy behind the Sandringham development is to create an integrated new community and the combination of the excellent range of apartments, homes, a state-of-the-art enterprise hub and central park space achieves this.

"The hub is an asset for local businesses to flourish and boost the local economy."

WORTHY CAUSE: Taylors' Derrick Bell with Keech Hospice Care adult services nurses; Kim Burns, Wendy Ford, Helen Catanni and Shelagh Mullen

Estate agents makes sporting gesture to hospice

THE regional director of estate agents Taylors popped in to Keech Hospice Care to donate a Nintendo Wii Sports.

The charity plans to install the games console in the adults' unit so that it can be part of its activity programme.

The games on the Wii Sports can easily be used by those who are not particularly mobile.

It will supplement the Wii which is currently available in the children's unit and is very popular.

Elaine Tolliday, the adult services manager, said: "We'd like to thank Taylors Estate Agents for thinking of us. This can be used by our patients and their families.

"Research shows that the use of the Wii improves balance and coordination skills and, apart from that, it's a lot of fun.

"Laughter is a word which came out very strongly when we asked people to describe Keech and this is just going to add to the uplifting atmosphere which we try so hard to provide."

Taylors' director Derrick Bell said: "People very close to me have had to use Keech Hospice and so I am pleased to be in a position to give something back."

"It's good to know that the Wii will be used by patients and their families and will make a difference."

"Taylors is very proud to support Keech Hospice Care. It's wonderful to have such a good local facility."

Keech Hospice Care supports adults in the Luton and south/central Bedfordshire areas and children with life-limiting conditions across Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Milton Keynes.

Follow Arthur's lead and get some help

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE founder of a sustainable food cooperative has urged businesses to recognise the benefits of working with social enterprises.

Arthur Potts Dawson, who started The People's Supermarket, is urging Bedfordshire's firms to make the most of the free support on offer from socially motivated companies.

Mr Potts Dawson opened his London-based community supermarket in 2010.

It is now an award-winning operation, with 1,200 members and plans to open a second branch next year.

In opening the supermarket, he worked closely with commercial businesses for advice on areas such as finance and planning.

He is now keen to stress that support from the private sector is needed to stimulate growth and that this support could be integral in rebuilding local economies.

Mr Potts Dawson said: "The 'social sector' of business is defying the downturn by growing before our eyes and I believe it holds the answers that today's economy and communities desperately need.

"There is a lot of innovation and creation coming out of this arena, and support from commercial businesses can help to deliver real business outcomes and massive social gains.

"By working with socially motivated organisations – whether it be integrating them into their supply chain, offering pro-bono projects or investment opportunities – private sector businesses play an important role in the growth of the social sector."

Firms' emergency planning

BUSINESSES from across Bedfordshire are putting together emergency plans to help their organisations survive disasters.

Firms are making preparations after attending a business continuity workshop at Putte ridge Bury Conference Centre, in Hitchin Road, Luton.

The free workshop was organised by Business Link and Bedfordshire and Luton Local Resilience Forum (BLLRF) to help companies prepare for disasters such as flood, fires and terrorism.

During the session, firms were taught how to use free tools to help assess the most vulnerable parts of their organisations and put measures in place to assist companies withstand a major natural or man-made disaster.

Iain Berry, Central Bedfordshire Council's chief emergency planner, said: "Effective planning before an emergency can mean the difference between surviving or thriving."

"This event helped businesses look at what they can do to prepare for emergencies but without spending lots of money.

"The event was a great success and very well attended.

"We definitely hope to organise more events like this in the future but in the meantime businesses can visit www.whatwouldyoudoif.co.uk for more information on how to prepare for disasters."

For more information you can follow BLLRF on Twitter @what_would and Facebook www.facebook.com/whatwouldyoudoif

BLLRF was formed in 2004, bringing together the key agencies required to respond to emergencies.

Bedfordshire residents are most at risk of the following emergencies:

- Flu pandemic
- Major river flooding
- Low temperatures or heavy snow
- Transport accident involving fuel or explosives
- Fuel supply disruption

Let your company shine in light of Olympic flame

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE Olympic Torch is coming to Luton next summer and businesses are being invited to sponsor the celebratory Love Luton 2012 Festival.

The unique weekend-long festival from July 6-9 promises to be like no other and will be one of the biggest events in the town's long and proud history.

With huge numbers of people from the town and surrounding area expected to attend, there are plenty of opportunities for businesses to reach tens of thousands of potential customers by placing their business name and logo in highly visible locations throughout the event and on all of its associated publicity.

Councillor Hazel Simmons, leader of Luton Borough Council, said: "Not only is this going to be one of Luton's biggest ever events but with national and international interest in the Olympic Torch Relay, the festival is guaranteed to generate massive media interest which will showcase the very best of Luton's rich culture and heritage.

"This makes it a perfect marketing opportunity to have your organisation's name associated with the festival which will be enjoyed by huge numbers of families, businesses, tourists, students and local communities.

"There are sponsorship packages to suit any type of budget so I encourage all local businesses - including smaller ones - to get in touch and see how you can get involved. Do not waste this golden opportunity."

Luton's unique cultural weekend will get underway on July 6 with school games in venues across Luton followed by fringe events in the evening and a 20,000 capacity music concert. July 7 will see more fringe events, along with Mela activities before another 20,000 capacity music concert.

The third day starts off with a spectacular carnival parade which will include a procession through the town centre, before the weekend's showcase event - the arrival of the Olympic Torch and evening ceremony.

The festival concludes on Monday, July 9 as Luton says farewell to the Torch.

The council has produced a sponsorship pack for any organisation that wants to be part of this massive and truly unique cultural event. It includes a sponsorship matrix with associated costs for each of the available packages.

Sponsorship options include main stage advertising, naming rights, banners in highly visible locations, logos on festival merchandise and editorial in the festival's souvenir guide.

There are also opportunities to sponsor marqueses, concert wristbands and much more.

To download the package go to www.luton.gov.uk/sponsorshipandadvertising or for more information contact Hannah Rees on 01582 547325 or hannah.rees@luton.gov.uk

CAMPAIGN: EasyJet delivers £5 million in APD tax to the Treasury – the weekly aviation tax on its passengers

Airline steps up its fight against increasing duty

EASYJET, the UK's largest airline, is acutely aware of the knock-on-effect to businesses in Luton if the Government pushes ahead with its proposals to increase Air Passenger Duty (APD) and is fighting against the rise on behalf of local companies.

These proposed changes, as set out by the Government in March, would increase APD from £12 up to £16 per person for flights of up to 2,000 miles and would reduce the rates and number of tax bands on long haul flights.

While a £4 increase does not look so damaging to Whitehall politicians on paper, the Government has to sit up and take notice of what a 33 per cent rise in cost would mean to the long term viability of local companies doing regular business across Europe.

This rise represents a huge threat to businesses and subsequently their employees.

Affordability is at the heart of easyjet's ethos and the airline is not prepared to sit back and allow this increase to slip through Parliament – not when the changes would hit local businesses directly in the pocket.

Hugh Aitken, easyjet's UK commercial manager, said: "It is clear that increased APD would prove prohibitive and cause unnecessary hardship during an economic climate in which the Luton businesses community is currently striving admirably to flourish. "We are committed to providing the best service for our local business travellers and fighting this rise is key to maintaining convenient and affordable travel from Luton Airport."

A report, commissioned by easyjet and published by Frontier Economics earlier this year, revealed that the changes would result in reducing the total number of flights available but would ultimately increase CO<sub>2</sub> emissions by encouraging more long haul flights.

The proposals are a double blow at a time when easyjet, and all other European airlines, prepare to join the European Union's Emissions Trading Scheme in 2012.

The cost to airlines for falling in line with this environmentally-driven Brussels directive is estimated to be €1.1 billion, according to Thomson Reuters Point Carbon, the energy market intelligence service.

Mr Aitken adds: "Alongside APD, the additional commitment of keeping up to date with the latest EU directive amounts to double taxation and the bottom line is that APD should be removed altogether so that UK businesses are not handicapped against the rest of Europe.

"APD is an income generator for the Treasury and has little to do with benefiting the environment."

Easyjet will continue to campaign against APD for the sake of maintaining affordable fares and relieving the burden on local businesses.

First aiders pass on life-saving skills to employees

ALMOST 1,500 people in Bedfordshire have learnt vital life-saving skills so far this year thanks to St John Ambulance.

Businesses in the county have been taking advantage of local training centres to ensure their staff learn first aid.

Since the beginning of the year, three centres in Bedford, Biggleswade and Dunstable have already helped 1,453 people learn first aid – one of the best performers in the East of England and five per cent up on last year.

Sue Skyles, regional training manager for St John Ambulance in the East, said: "Not all businesses are aware that they have these fantastic facilities so close to them. We are particularly pleased to see that the requalification and refresher courses in the county are doing so well."

St John Ambulance also offers businesses advice and guidance on the most suitable courses, on-site training and post-training support.

Exciting future ahead for property expert

A PROPERTY guru has celebrated 20 years of success with a lavish party at Luton Hoo.

Leading expert Sam Bains founded highly acclaimed Ultimate Connexions Property company, based in Wellington Street, Luton, in 1991 and since then it has rented out thousands of homes, exploiting a niche in advising clients on developing closed pubs.

Around 250 friends, staff, business associates and clients partied at the James Bond-themed bash.

Ms Bains said: "It has been a wonderful 20 years. I am so very grateful to both my staff for all their hard work and our clients for their loyalty to us. "I'm now looking forward to celebrating the next 20. We are proud to have helped thousands to sell and buy homes. It is extremely exciting to be now advising clients on developing.

"We have a lot of exciting new divisions of Ultimate Connexions being launched soon – so watch this space."

Authority to offer help with contract process

IF you are an established small or medium enterprise in Luton looking to expand, you could get help getting into contracts worth up to £200,000.

Luton Borough Council is launching a project to help ten businesses develop the skills and expertise to identify and find contract opportunities and complete tender documents to bid for funding.

Participating businesses will be offered one-to-one expert guidance by industry specialists and intensive support throughout the process. Skills acquired will allow businesses to continuously apply for tenders.

Cllr Roy Davis said: "We want to help businesses to become 'tender ready', with the skills and confidence to successfully navigate the tendering process by themselves and win their funding bid.

"We know the tendering process is no picnic. It's complex.

"You need to know where to look and how to identify tendering opportunities and you need to be able to complete the documents appropriately."

The council will be emailing businesses within the next few weeks inviting them to check to see if they meet the criteria to become one of the ten lucky enough to be selected to take part in the project, which will run for 12 months.

Dealer's 25 years of getting drivers behind the wheel

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

VAUXHALL retailer Motorbodies is celebrating 25 years of business.

This Luton-based retailer, which prides itself on 'exceptional service', has gone from strength to strength over the past 25 years and is continuing to grow even in today's challenging climate.

Amateur rally driver Nigel Gray first bought Motorbodies in 1985 when he employed a small team of just 32 and sold a few hundred cars per year.

Today, the company employs a workforce of more than 140 and sells in excess of 4,500 Vauxhalls every year, including fleet vehicles as well as new and used cars. Mr Gray said: "When I think back to when I started in the industry, working for Vauxhall more than 40 years ago, it is clear that there is just no resemblance between what was available for customers then to what we have now; the product is better than it has ever been."

Mr Gray has always had a passion for motors, having been involved in many historic car rallies across the country and even as far afield as New Zealand.

Keen historic motoring enthusiasts are catered for at Motorbodies, as visitors will get the chance to see one of the first Vauxhalls cars produced in Luton, back in 1905, displayed in the showroom alongside all the exciting new models constantly emerging as part of the Vauxhall range.

Motorbodies also offers comprehensive aftercare for motorists in Luton with the dedicated aftersales site on Dallow Road.

Accredited technicians and approved Vauxhall parts and body repairs provide customers of Motorbodies with peace-of-mind and the confidence that they are receiving the highest standard of care for their vehicles.

For further information on the services available at Motorbodies and the vehicles available, visit Motorbodies Luton, Kimpton Road, Luton, or Motorbodies Leagrave at 2-6 Bilton Way, Dallow Road.

JOINING TOGETHER: Jacqueline Webb, Fiona McDermott and Penny Rawlings

Business minds meet up

BASEPOINT Luton hosted its first networking event to great success with around 40 attendees taking the opportunity to network.

Event speakers were Jacqueline Webb from Pictons Solicitors, along with Sharon O'Donnell from Randstad who spoke about temporary workers.

Fiona McDermott, centre manager at Basepoint Innovation and Business Centre Luton, said: "The Networking Hub is a fantastic way for local business to come together in an informal way and discuss their business ideas and issues.

"This is our first Networking Hub for Luton and it was a great success - everyone said how enthused they felt after the event and that it was a really worthwhile two hours. We look forward to our next event."

The next quarterly networking event at Basepoint Luton is scheduled for January 2012.

For more information visit www.basepoint.co.uk or call 01582 434200.

Holidaymakers can jet to Heraklion with airline's new flights

EASYJET has announced that it will operate a new route to Heraklion in Crete for the first time from Luton Airport.

Supporting the Luton-based carrier's pledge to make travel easy and affordable, fares on this new route start from as little as £44.99 (one-way, including taxes).

The inaugural flight will take off from Luton Airport on April 21, 2012 and will operate once a week.

Hugh Aitken, easyJet's UK commercial manager, said: "We're delighted to be launching this new route to the sunshine destination of Heraklion in Crete.

Crete remains a huge draw to British holidaymakers and the addition of easyJet flights from Luton Airport makes it even easier for travellers to visit this wonderful destination."

Heraklion, the largest city in Crete and the airport where easyJet will fly to, provides short transfer times to popular resorts such as Malia and Agios Nikolaos. EasyJet now carries more than five million passengers through Luton Airport each year and has 16 aircraft based there.

It has grown to operate 35 routes including Istanbul, Palma De Mallorca, Cyprus, Barcelona and Munich.

Just last month the airline confirmed it will begin operating a new route to Corfu twice a week from March 31, 2012.

Flights on the new route to Heraklion, are now available on easyjet.com

Car firm thinks 'green' with new check offer

DUNSTABLE-BASED car retailer Hartwell is launching its own anti-pollution campaign.

One vehicle in five currently fails the MoT Test because of high exhaust emission levels, according to the Fiat and Peugeot dealership.

A study carried out by the National Society for Clean Air & Environmental Protection (NSCA) on human response to air pollution revealed that young children are particularly susceptible to pollution from dirty car exhausts, as toxins are quickly absorbed into their bodies. In response to these warnings, Hartwell is urging motorists to take full advantage of an offer of free exhaust emission checks.

The anti-pollution campaign, announced this month by Hartwell, means that motorists could save themselves a police fine of up to £5,000 by having their vehicle checked free of charge at its workshops in London Road, Dunstable, during the coming months.

And with fuel costs soaring ever higher, Hartwell will also check to see whether their vehicle can be tuned to run more economically as well. Graham Betts, general manager, said: "Exhaust emissions have become an increasing problem in towns and cities and we are taking the initiative to tackle the problem locally.

"As far as I am aware, we are the first motor dealership in Bedfordshire to consider the environment in this way by offering free exhaust tests to local drivers.

"Whether you have a social conscience or a mind for saving money, taking a practical measure to aid the environment and the wallet is better than just fuming."

For a free check, contact Hartwell on 01582 443500.

Business Women and Their Brands

I have been fortunate enough to work with many inspiring women both within my firm and those entrepreneurial women I have met being either contacts or clients of the firm. It's always a motivation to meet with women whose business / career is just as important to them as their family life and who really are able to balance it all!

Generally, women in the work place are image conscious and like to ensure that they are perceived in a professional manner. Their individual brand is important and brand and reputation is something which has value both as an individual and in terms of your business and product brand.

The world of marketing we see today has changed dramatically since the 1990's which marked the boom of the World Wide Web and the ever reaching expanse of marketing on the Web. It is important that we take time to ensure that we can protect our brand in this obis of what we call the internet!

Brand abuse online by "Brandjackers" can not only erode your business and or personal reputation but can result in loss of revenue and lack of customer trust.

Types of online abuse include Traffic Diversion Schemes whereby legitimate customers who visit your site are unknowingly diverted to illegitimate sites and this means a possible loss of sale for your business. Search engine marketing abuse and manipulation, cyber squatting, counterfeiting and piracy, brand defamation and the sale of your authentic products through unauthorised channels are all schemes which you need to be aware of.

Although these dangers exist, we all know that the internet is a must for the modern business woman – so what steps can you take to protect your online brand identity?

Understand the problem—carry out your own online searches and investigate where your online weaknesses are.

Use a multiple of protection measures—make sure you have preventative and detective steps in place by using the correct software to pick up any suspect activity on your site. Get your staff involved to keep an eye out for any infringements.

Have agreed responsive steps in place should infringement have occurred. These should be agreed before hand and take into account minor to major infringements. Acting quickly will protect your brand.

Own your domain portfolio – make sure you know your online space and that it is secure.

Take control of your marketing channels online – ensure you have agreements in place governing how your business will be marketed through the various channels you use.

Work closely with your solicitor to ensure that you have agreed actions set up so that you can act quickly in stopping further brand infringement.

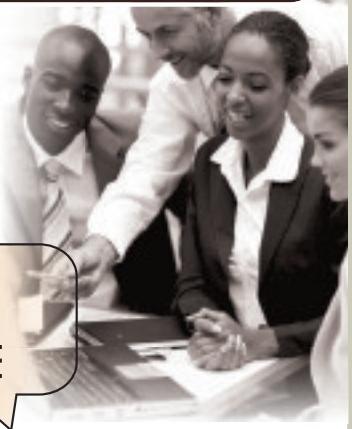

If you have any questions about protecting your brand contact Deborah at Machins Solicitors LLP.

Free Sample Cti Coaching Service

As an established business and management consultant, entrepreneur and coach, Zora's coaching service was built on the four cornerstones of the Cti CoActive coaching model which believes that each individual 'Holds the answer to the realisation of their own personal and commercial success'.

Established 12 months ago in response to many requests for a personalised one to one coaching service from her clients - often owners of SME's who wanted to achieve genuine improved demonstrable successes in their business and personal lives.

Knowing the Co-Active coaching model would have a direct impact on their leadership style and the development of their business performance Zora uses a 'Values based approach by tapping uniquely into the layers which need to be unravelled.

"It's magical watching my clients transform as they journey through the process . It's better still when they peak realising many an Aha moment knowing the steps they need to take for improvements to begin to take shape."

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

Zora is a natural at coaching! She has a lovely gentle yet effective way which allows the coachee to comfortably come to and verbalise what it was precisely which they felt a "fear" for or simply avoided.

Zora has the art of probing with questions that got right to the root cause(s) of the issue, which I found to be completely non-intrusive yet exceedingly effective in its subtlety.

With this "gifted" art of coaching, Zora assisted me in allowing myself the "A-HA" Moment of realisation which rippled through the nuances of stars in my eyes, the tears, the shift of energy in my heart chakra and the tingling of my aura, which unanimously chorused :-
"I GOT IT - TOTALLY"

I feel more empowered than before!
With this followed my action steps, which has brought about many changes I knowingly and unknowingly denied myself for so long!

Dearest Zora, my Heart felt thanks is extended to you.

I highly recommend your Coaching Services.

Jean O'Dean
Intuitive Consultant , London England, UK

Zora is keen to extend her coaching services by offering a free sample session to anyone who contacts her between now and the end of November. She says the first FREE session will give her clients an insight into what they might expect should they decide to follow through to book a course of coaching sessions. ## Ladies Bringing Charm To A Local Pub Cherrie has been the manager of the Castle Tavern for two years. She has lots of experience in this industry and has seen many changes in the eighteen years that she has worked in pubs and restaurants. The castle is a great place to socialise with friends, they have live music every week and themed events for the public to get involved with.

Cherrie is pleased to introduce a new chef to The Castle Tavern, Aunty Carmen. She is putting together a fantastic caribbean menu, and cooking fresh home cooked food daily and BBQs every Friday and Saturday to co inside with the weekend live bands. Carmen comes from Jamaica and she recalls that when she was a child she used to watch and help her father, who was a fantastic cook making meals for family parties. She studied cookery at school and became very talented in the kitchen, having such a flair for food she was employed to cater for different occasions, family friends, birthday parties, christenings and funerals.

Carmen also owned a restaurant and bar in Port Antonio called Bar Acqug and has brought her inspiration to the local pub to share her fantastic menu with the locals. Her menu includes favourites such as Jerk Chicken and Pork and also a healthy option of BBQ Vegetables , she welcomes new people to taste her cuisine and is starting a dining club for people to sample the flavours. She is also putting together a take away menu for people to try food at home.

Cherrie has a lovely venue with so much to offer the public, fantastic bands, themed events , great homemade food and so much going on. She thinks it is like a country pub in the town and welcomes you to The Castle Tavern.

.....Well..... where did that 18 years go?

I opened Dale Evans Beauty on Stockingstone Rd 18 years ago, my daughter was only 6 month old!

I started in partnership with my mother, who retired out of the business a few years ago to enjoy a more relaxed pace of life in Norfolk.

We chose the salon because of its close proximity to the town but also wanted somewhere with parking facilities. Over the years we have doubled in size and now employ 11 staff. We are open 12 hours a day Monday to Friday and until 4 on Saturdays. Our late evening opening until 9pm has always been a hit.

Over the years we have won many awards including being a MD Formulations skincare 'salon of excellence'

We were one of the first salons to introduce IPL permanent hair removal and last year upgraded to the world renowned 'Soprano laser system', offering a painless method of permanent hair removal suitable for all skin types and for men and women.

We offer free consultations on all treatments and pride ourselves on our experienced, professional staff.

All our treatment rooms offer privacy and comfort and we offer one of the most comprehensive list of treatments in the area. We have a visiting doctor for more extreme methods of anti ageing and a visiting therapist for food intolerance testing and reiki treatments.

I specialise in permanent make up which is ideal for sparse eyebrows, definition around the eyes and liplines requiring definition. The procedure lasts up to 5 years and I have over 10 years experience in this. Until the end of November I am offering up to £100 off treatment,

The salon is now managed by Susan and my deputy manager Shriti who has been with me over 12 years.

Our website has recently been updated and has lots of information about all our treatments.

We are now getting ready for the busy festive period and our gift vouchers have always been popular as presents, they come with a presentation wallet and start from £10 with packages like our top to toe day including 5 hours of pampering for only £140

I am looking forward to another 18 years and hope to see you in the salon soon!

With over
100 years
experience of...
beauty therapy

You know you're in safe hands with us.

At Dale Evans Beauty Salon, we have been providing high quality beauty treatments for both men and women, from eyebrow shaping to advanced non surgical face lifts, and laser hair removal treatments.

Our unique health and beauty experience is designed to enable men and women to escape the pressures of everyday life and enter a world of relaxation and renewal.

Get In The Mood for a host of swing classics

MUSIC

IN THE MOOD

Luton Library Theatre

Thursday, 7.30pm

LUTON will be swinging along to the In The Mood show with Five Star Swing on Thursday.

Following their recent national tour, the show will be performing at the Library Theatre with Shirley Bassey's trombonist, Michael Innes, who was also the musical director for Song for Europe.

Former Ivy Benson musician Simone Smith and her husband, Chris (from the band of Glenn Miller's brother, Herb) feature in the show which boasts a host of classic Big Band/Swing songs from artists such as Frank Sinatra and Glenn Miller through to Jools Holland-style jazz.

Chris said: "My father (Chris Smith Snr) played trombone for Frank Sinatra on his European tours and it's great that there's a strong resurgence in jazz and swing music enjoyed by all generations now."

"We were very pleased to perform for Dame Vera at her Annual Charity Ball and Blackpool's Famous Tower Ballroom.

"We're looking forward to bringing the show back to town."

Simone, from Slip End, Luton, sings and plays lead Alto Saxophone in the band and has also played with prestigious artists such as Paul Weller, John Williams, Ivy Benson Show Band plus a saxophone solo on the Paul Merton TV show.

Bandleader Chris, who also sings, plays trumpet and piano and also comes from Slip End, is well known in the jazz world for his arrangements and compositions frequently played on Jazz FM and BBC Radio 2.

Tickets cost £10, with a £2 discount for concessions. To book, call the box office on 01582 547474.

Listen to a band full of world class musicians

MUSIC

CARLTON MAIN FRICKLEY COLLIERY BRASS BAND

Alban Arena, St Albans
Saturday, 2.30pm

THE Carlton Main Frickley Colliery Brass Band have made more than 200 BBC broadcasts, appeared on TV many times, performed at many of the top UK venues and have toured Europe on several occasions.

Over the years they have accompanied many artists including Paul Robeson, Cleo Laine, Julian Lloyd Webber, Nigel Kennedy and who can forget Tony Capstick with Capstick Comes Home which reached number three in the hit parade.

The band count themselves fortunate to have many truly world class musicians in their ranks including the multi-award-winning Principal Cornet player Kirsty Abbotts, whose many accolades include being the solo champion of Great Britain and best soloist at the English Nationals.

Tickets cost £15 with £2 off for concessions.

Breakfast club - with Heart FM's Stuart and Natalie

SO we had a week off and left our drive-time presenter Matt Jarvis (affectionately known as 'The Jarv') in the breakfast seat.

Imagine Natalie's fury when she realised The Jarv has managed to speak to none other than Matt Goss!

He has a brand new album and single coming out and he's working with Larry Rudolph, Britney's manager and creator of the Pussycat Dolls.

The Jarv asked Matt if there was a chance that Bros might reform, following hot on the heels of Steps and The Stone Roses?

"The way Luke and I did our last gig was at Wembley Stadium on our birthdays so we kind of don't want to mess with it. If we could do something that was outrageous and if something came in that was an absolutely incredible show then we might consider it – until that really happens, we want to leave it be."

On hearing this, Natalie screams for someone to call Simon Cowell, surely he could make an offer.

The chat with Matt unearthed some other interesting nuggets.

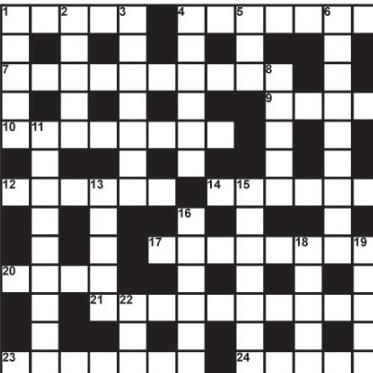

Water melon is his favourite fruit, he's never pretended to be Luke for a laugh, he wishes his six-pack in the fridge was on his stomach, he's written a children's book called Bear Chrimbo and he actually owns the word Chrimbo. His favourite chocolate bar is a Caramac and according to IMDB he is ranked as one of the most successful artists in chart history both when he was in Bros and also a solo artist!

All this week on Heart, we're giving 50 lucky listeners the chance to join Emma Bunton and Jamie Theakston as they get up close and personal with Michael Bublé at a glamorous London location for cocktails and conversation!

Keep listening and we'll see you next week.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast each weekday morning from 6am until 10am on Heart 96.6FM

EXECUTIVE SECRETARY

(Ref: HOU00073) – Shefford, Bedfordshire

Founded in 1852, we are now one of the country's most recognisable brands for the built environment, developing and delivering new schools, housing, hospitals, hotels and office developments, often as part of a town's regeneration. We also care and maintain over 120,000 homes and provide sustainability expertise.

Willmott Dixon Housing, part of the Willmott Dixon Group, is one of the UK's largest and most successful social housing providers. Thirty years of specialisation has equipped us to successfully tackle any type of project from large regeneration schemes to greenfield housing. Our use of new innovative technologies whilst delivering affordable solutions underpins our strategic development.

You will provide full secretarial and administrative support for the Managing Director, undertake all management and leadership functions in relation to the Reception/Administration team, and manage the infrastructure of the local company office.

The role requires management and administration of the company vehicles via a lease company and ensuring the local IT requirements are organised with the support of the Group IT function.

You will have a minimum of 5 years experience in a similar role and be proficient in all Microsoft Office applications, and have excellent written skills to enable you to produce clear and concise board minutes, business reports and presentations.

To apply for this job, please go to www.willmottdixongroup.co.uk and click on Careers, you will also find other information about the business at this location.

Willmott Dixon embraces diversity in the workplace and encourages applications from all sectors of the community.

Taking care of the future

Anjulita Court is a very unique, special place and award winning home for innovative architectural design. Anjulita Court and Ladyslaude Court have been built by the Ibbett Trust and are managed for the Trust by MHA. This is a unique collaboration and our aim is to become a Centre of Excellence in Elderly care, providing innovative care, which is at the centre of the local community.

General Manager

£46,500 p.a. + up to £2400 performance related bonus
Full Time – 37.5 hours per week, Anjulita Court, Bedford

Caring, compassionate and capable – MHA's care home managers are a rare blend. It is essential to have senior level experience in the health or social care sector, with direct line management of all staff including qualified nurses and budget responsibilities. At the same time, a genuine passion for older people's well-being is crucial to deliver the person-centred care which is at the heart of MHA's ethos.

We are looking to recruit an outstanding General Manager for Anjulita Court. You will have a challenging but deeply fulfilling role running a 62 place home providing residential, nursing and dementia care. Additionally you will be accountable for the support provided to the residents of Ladyslaude Court which has 22 luxury apartments. You will ideally be a registered nurse and hold relevant management qualifications. You will be a brilliant, friendly communicator at all levels with the ability to develop strong community links; administration skills and the ability to prioritise and cope with a busy and varied workload are essential.

Above all you will need to care from the heart about your residents and their physical, mental and spiritual needs, making sure everyone of them is treated as a unique individual in a warm caring place that runs on empathy as well as efficiency.

MHA awards this role properly with an attractive salary, pension and life assurance scheme and a flexible employee benefits package.

A relocation package will be available for the right candidate to live within 25 minutes travel time of Anjulita Court.

To apply or find out more please visit www.mha.org.uk Alternatively contact Dianna Coy at dianna.coy@mha.org.uk

Closing date: Thursday 10th November 2011

Public Notices*Luton Borough Council Local Adjudication Panel Number 36

NOTICE is hereby given pursuant to Regulation 20(1)(b) of the Standards Committee (England) Regulations 2008 (the Regulations) that on 29 September 2011 the Local Adjudication Panel for Luton Borough Council (the Panel) considered a complaint made against Councillor Roy Davis in which it had been alleged that the Councillor had breached the Council's Code of Conduct for Members.

The Panel considered both the written evidence and the oral evidence presented at the hearing and found that Councillor Davis had breached the Council's Code of Conduct for Members in that, in an email he had sent to the complainant, he had failed to treat the complainant with respect as required under paragraph 3(1) of the Code.

The Panel determined that a sanction be imposed under Regulation 19(3) of the Regulations and that the appropriate sanction was for Councillor Davis to be censured for his actions.

Luton Borough Council*THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (BRILL CLOSE AND OVING CLOSE) (TEMPORARY FOOTPATH CLOSURES) ORDER 2011

NOTICE is hereby given that Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, intends to make the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended).

The Order will come into operation 9th January 2012 and cease operation after a period of 6 months or when the proposed works have been completed, whichever is the earlier. Specific dates will be signed locally. The Order will therefore be in operation when signs are displayed.

The effect of the Order will allow the Council to close to pedestrians the footpath and length of footpath in the schedule below. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the dates described above.

The purpose of the Order is to facilitate the replacement of gas mains and service pipes to properties.

Access will be maintained as best as possible to properties where this may be done safely whilst such works are being carried out and diversions for pedestrians will be marked by signs.

Richmond Hill School

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Luton Borough Council, Town Hall, Luton LU1 2BQ intends to make a prescribed alteration to Richmond Hill School (Community Special School), Sunridge Avenue, Luton, LU2 9AH from 01 September 2012.

It is proposed to enlarge the School by adding additional accommodation.

The current capacity of the School is 85; the proposed capacity is 115. The current number of pupils currently on roll is 78. The enlargement of the school premises will ensure that the School can accommodate up to 30 additional pupils to meet the rising demand for special school places.

This Notice is an extract from the complete proposal. Copies of the complete proposal can be obtained from Deborah Smith by telephoning 548041 or by writing to the Planning & Admissions Team, 4th Floor Unity House, 111 Stuart Street, Luton LU1 5NP. Alternatively, the complete proposal can be viewed at: www.luton.gov.uk/consultation

Within four weeks from the date of publication of these proposals, any person may object to, or make comments on, the proposal by sending them to Mrs Deborah Smith, Planning & Admissions Officer, 4th Floor Unity House, 111 Stuart Street, Luton, LU1 5NP.

THE SMART MONEY'S ON YARIS

A HATCHBACK THAT'S AS CLUED-UP AS YOU ARE? IN OUR SHOWROOMS NOW AT STEVEN EAGELL TOYOTA.

The all new Yaris has a lot going for it. A sleek, neat shape that's designed to cut through the air. A choice of engines with Toyota Optimal Drive technology, designed to save fuel without relegating you to the slow lane. A refined, spacious interior. But what makes the new Yaris really stand out is the Touch & Go multimedia system. It looks like the kind of touch screen you might find in other cars (though rarely in a small city hatchback like the Yaris). But there the similarity ends.

That's because Touch & Go is clever. Really clever. It features an intelligent sat nav system with Premium Traffic Info. That means it gets real-time information on traffic jams and roadworks and takes it into account when finding you a route. There's another feature too, called Eco Route. This finds you the most fuel-efficient route for any given journey, monitors your driving style and helps you squeeze the most mileage out of every gallon.

So, you're en route. But you need to fill up. Where's the nearest and cheapest petrol station? Touch & Go's Fuel Price Finder will tell you, and take you there. And when you get to your destination, its Google Local Search feature will locate restaurants, cashpoints, cinemas, theatres...it's like having a local expert sitting next to you. The Touch & Go system even connects via your smart phone to give you features such as the weather forecast, or even a parking slot finder, through its Connected Services feature. And when you've arrived, found that slot and need to park, Touch & Go has another trick up its sleeve. Engage reverse and the touch screen instantly switches to the rear-view camera, helping you to park with inch-perfect precision.

Technophiles and gurus have been talking about the 'always on' world for some time now. It's all about being seamlessly connected to information, whenever and wherever we want it. Now Toyota has brought it to life with the new Yaris, and just as important, they've made it easy to use. Just get in, seatbelt on, touch...and go.

The Touch & Go multimedia system can be yours at no additional cost - saving you £500 on orders placed before 30th November†. Plus receive 2 Years FREE servicing when financed through AccessToyota 6.9% APR Representative*.

To put the all new Yaris to the test, give Steven Eagell Toyota a call on 01908 248 888 or pop in and visit us. www.steveneagell.toyota.co.uk

Luton torn apart in second-half rout

NATIONAL THREE LONDON & SOUTH EAST
LUTON 15
DORKING 59

A SECOND-HALF onslaught from Dorking blew away Luton after what was a very tight first half between the two teams.

Aidan Kenny kicked an early penalty for the home side but the visitors hit back with a try and conversion minutes later.

Luton then scored a try of their own to take back the lead when good work from Hayden Annand released Kenny to touch down and convert.

Two tries before half time for Dorking gave them a 19-10 lead at half-time and in the second half they ran riot. They amassed a total of 30 points clocking up six tries in the process. Annand scored a late try for Luton to finish on a high.

STOCKWOOD PARK 10

Stockwood Park put in a valiant effort at Vipers narrowly losing 13-10.

The hosts started the game brighter and scored the opening try in the 24th minute after turning the ball over at the visitors' scrum. Jason Carr scored a well-struck penalty before the break but the score remained 5-3 at half-time.

failed to put any points on the board. Against the run of play, it was the visitors who scored the afternoon's first try when they went over in the 20th minute. They then added a penalty minutes later.

Tom Evans kicked Dunstablians only points of the day before Lutterworth – again against the run of play – scored a late try and conversion to seal an unlikely looking win.

Despite extensive pressure by Park, Vipers added another try on the hour. The ball was turned over in the final 22 and the home winger ran home. They added a penalty ten minutes later but Stockwood came back strongly, Martin Rowe touching down in the dying minutes in the corner after some great passing. But the conversion by Carr left Park short of the win as the away side continued to press.

Hatters recover after conceding shock early goal

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@lutonsunday.com

AARON O'CONNOR was on target twice as Luton Town cruised into the first round proper of the FA Cup with a comfortable victory over Isthmian League Premier Division outfit Hendon at Kenilworth Road.

Gary McCann's side had briefly threatened an upset after taking an early lead, but the Blue Square Bet Premier promotion contenders swiftly snuffed out those hopes, with man-of-the-match O'Connor capping another impressive performance with a double to crush the dreams of Hendon's 193 loyal followers who made the trip from North London.

Luton's victory was slightly overshadowed by an early injury to James Dance who, it later transpired, had to be taken to hospital suffering concussion after a clash of heads in the first half. Yet there was some good news on the injury front, with Charlie Henry making his first team debut as a second-half substitute after over a year out through injury.

The Greens, after a somewhat nomadic existence following their departure from Claremont Road, currently make their home at Vale Farm, the home of Wembley FC and just over two miles as the crow flies from the famous venue of the same name that will host the conclusion of this year's tournament for the 77th time on May 5 next year. And while their FA Cup runs have never eclipsed that of 1974 where they took Newcastle United to a third round replay, Hendon have been visitors to Wembley Stadium on no less than five occasions in the old FA Amateur Cup, carrying off the trophy three times.

They were bidding to reach the first round proper for the 28th time in their history, where last year they exited at the hands of Chelmsford City and would have felt they were in with a chance of doing so when they stunned the Hatters by taking a fifth minute lead.

Luton, featuring five changes to the side that beat Grimsby Town last Friday, had been doing all the early pressing and forced two corners within the first two minutes, the second of which skipper-for-the-day Jamie Hand headed just over. However, a clumsy foul by Dean Beckwith on Elliott Charles gave Hendon a free kick.

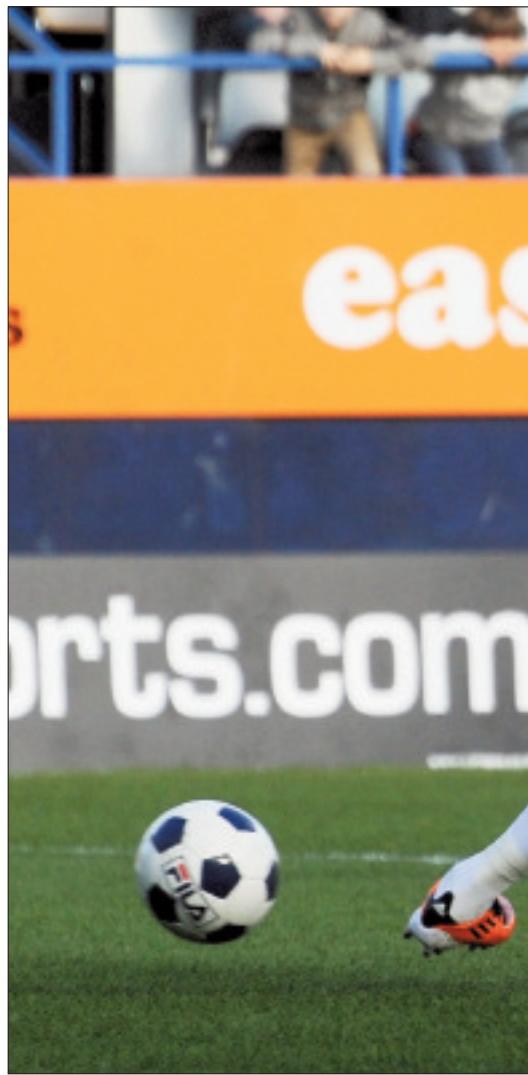

Scott Cousins curled it into the box and the unmarked Carl McCluskey rose to head the part-timers ahead. They may well have sensed an upset was on the cards, yet it took just two minutes for Town to level things up, with O'Connor coolly slotting home a penalty after Beckwith had been tripped by James Parker inside the area.

The hosts then went ahead in the 12th minute when Curtis Osano crossed for Dance to score with a bullet header from six yards. A mid-air collision with Kevin Maclareen while scoring the goal left him lying on the ground though, bringing a premature end to his afternoon as he was stretchered off.

It could well have been 3-1 to the Hatters five minutes later had Stuart Fleetwood, loitering in an offside position, not decided to put a final touch on O'Connor's goal-bound shot. The striker then went close from a 19th-minute free kick, forcing Greens keeper Sean Thomas into a good save low to his left.

The third Luton goal did arrive in the 25th minute when Thomas fumbled Osano's fiercely hit low drive from just outside the box and Tommy Wright capitalised on the error to head over the sprawling keeper for his second goal in as many starts for the club.

Hendon's task was then made harder when Casey Maclareen was forced off due to injury. Two minutes later John Paul Kissack drilled over a curling strike from an angle ten yards out, but the rest of the half provided little in the way of opportunities for either side with the Hatters firmly in control of proceedings. Hendon came close to pulling one back inside the opening two minutes of the second period after Parker fired just wide from eight yards with an acrobatic effort.

Their hopes of mounting a comeback were effectively killed off in the 62nd minute, with Kevin Maclareen being sent for an early bath after picking up his second yellow for an ill-judged tackle on Kissack.

Two goals in two minutes broke Hendon's resolve once and for all. First Jake Howells played a perfectly weighted through ball to Fleetwood, who beat the off-side trap and rounded Thomas before scoring. Then straight from the restart a defensive lapse allowed in O'Connor for his second of the afternoon.

That was the way it stayed until the end as the Hatters secured their place in the bag for today's lunchtime draw. A potential tie against the likes of the Sheffield clubs, Preston North End or even a return to Charlton Athletic await as the Football League sides enter the competition.

they are battling long-term injury, and Henry was no different while he was stuck on the side lines.

"I had bad days when I've half-broken down and thought 'this is it, I don't know whether I can carry on or not,'" he said. "It was such a bad injury, but I've got through it."

"The gaffer has been unbelievable, the backroom staff, the coaches, the doctors, the physio have all been behind me and all helped me through the toughest time in my career."

"Now I want to start paying them back."

Brabin confirmed there is the possibility Henry could leave the club on loan to regain match fitness, but he is happy to do whatever it takes to establish himself in the Luton side. He carved out several opportunities for himself during his 17-minute spell in the 5-1 win over Hendon, including taking a free kick that came back off the wall.

"I blame Jake [Howells] for the free kick because he said 'just smash it,'" Henry joked, adding: "I'm not listening to him again, but he was the skipper so I listened to him."

"It was good to be back out there and be in among the lads."

"It was unbelievable. I'm just so glad to be back on the football pitch."

"It has been so long and such a frustrating time for me over the past year, but I've got through it and I'm just so pleased to be on the field playing."

Dance helps Rovers waltz to narrow win

EVO-STIK DIVISION ONE CENTRAL

BARTON ROVERS 2
MARLOW 1

BOBBY Dance scored a brace to help Barton Rovers on their way to a hard-fought win at home to Marlow.

Dance's first goal came courtesy of a Same Spencer cross which he expertly volleyed into the net to give Barton the lead.

The away side hit back just after half-time and Rovers wasted a great chance to restore their lead when they were awarded a penalty, but Russell Ball missed.

They were awarded another penalty in the 84th minute when Dave Parkinson was fouled in the box, Dance scoring from the spot for his second.

On Tuesday Barton take on Arlesey Town who beat Forest Green in the FA Cup on Saturday in the final qualifying round.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION

DUNSTABLE TOWN 2
STOTFOLD 1

JONATHAN COOPER went from hero to zero after his match-winning performance was spoilt with a late red card as his side held off a late Stotfold barrage.

Nick Judge's cross early in the first half found Nick Leach who finished well to give Dunstable the lead. Stotfold hit back in the second half but a superb individual goal from Cooper restored their advantage. He saw red after two yellow cards late on, but his team stood firm despite his absence.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION

HARINGEY BOROUGH 1
AFC DUNSTABLE 2

AFC Dunstable claimed all three points at Haringey Borough thanks to a late Danny Ryan header.

Dunstable took the lead in the 30th minute after a goalmouth scramble fell to Graham Vuchanan to smash home. The game remained 1-0 until the 60th minute when the hosts equalised with a 25-yard free kick. But the decider came late from a corner making the final score 2-1.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

WELWYN GARDEN CITY 0
CRAWLEY GREEN 1

NEW Crawley manager Mark Smith continued his excellent start with an away victory secured through Luke Lincoln's goal.

Smith has now taken 16 points out of a possible 18 since becoming Crawley boss.

It was a scrappy game devoid of chances, and a goalless draw may have been the fairest result. But, in the 36th minute, Lincoln raced on to a long ball to slot home the only goal of an otherwise cagey game. Smith's team stoutly held out for the win.

SOUTH MID LEAGUE DIVISION TWO CUP ROUND ONE

THE 61FC 2
WINSLOW UNITED 3

The 61FC were unable to overcome Winslow in a repeat of last year's cup final.

The visitors, who were victorious in that final, were able to hold out for the win after Bradley Carrington's late consolation. Earlier, Aaron Lewis had scored for 61FC.

SOUTH MID LEAGUE DIVISION TWO ROUND-UP

KENT ATHLETIC came from behind to beat Bletchley Town 3-1.

They trailed in the 15th minute after the defence failed to deal with a long ball. In the 22nd minute Adam Carrington tapped in after good work from Junior George. Daniel Harris scored on 36 minutes from the edge of the box and George scored late on to give Athletic the three points.

TOTTENHOE scored the only goal of their game in the dying seconds when they beat Risborough Rangers. Lewis Hutchings' 89th minute cross-cum shot from 35 yards was enough to earn them the win.

CADDINGTON suffered a 4-0 loss to Pitstone & Ivinghoe.

Henry 'buzzing' to be back after injury hell

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@lutononsunday.com

CHARLIE HENRY is determined to pay back the faith shown in him by Luton Town manager Gary Brabin and his staff after returning from over a year out due to injury.

The midfielder suffered a detached ligament in his foot while playing against the Hatters for Newport County last year, ruling him out for the rest of the season after he'd made the switch to Kenilworth Road.

But having made a full recovery, the 24-year-old was included on the bench for the yesterday's 5-1 FA Cup fourth qualifying round rout of Hendon, and made an impressive cameo appearance as a 73rd minute substitute – his first team debut.

Henry admitted afterwards that Brabin had given him no indication he would get an opportunity, saying: "He didn't say anything, he just told me I was in the squad."

"When he told me to go and get warmed up I was buzzing. It was just good for me to be back on the football pitch. I need minutes, I need games and I'm not match fit yet. I'm only going to get that through games."

"I need to get my sharpness back and my extra yard or two of pace, but it's there. It's not far away and it's only games that are going to do it. I'm training every day with everyone, my foot feels good and the last month has been so good because the progression I have made has been immense."

It's tough for any professional athlete when

Kovacs extends stay

LUTON Town have agreed a loan extension for Hereford United defender Janos Kovacs with a view to a permanent move on January 1, 2012, when the temporary contract expires.

The Hungarian centre back's new loan spell will begin on November 4 so he was ineligible for yesterday's 5-1 FA Cup fourth qualifying round win at home to Hendon.

Currently on an emergency loan, which can only last a total of 93 days, Kovacs (pictured above) has already used up 34 days in his original month-long stay. With only 59 remaining, Hatters manager Gary Brabin decided he wants the player to be available for the Boxing Day fixture against Kettering instead of today.

Brabin said: "I'm delighted that Janos is with us now through until early January and hopefully we can agree something in the longer term. He's been great around the squad in the time we've already had him, bringing some real strength and power in the air to the side. He has enjoyed his time back at Luton and we've enjoyed him being here."

The extension continues Kovacs' second spell at Luton Town after he made 17 appearances the first time around, scoring on his debut in 2010 after leaving Lincoln City by mutual consent. He left Kenilworth Road at the beginning of last season for Hereford but moved back temporarily a month ago after finding opportunities at Edgar Street limited.
